

Hindmarsh Shire Council invites you to attend the 2014 Rural Summit

Thursday 27 – Friday 28
March 2014

RURAL SUMMIT NHILL 2014

SMALL COMMUNITIES

BIG OPPORTUNITIES

Facing the future and embracing change

Nhill - alive with opportunity

Halfway between Melbourne and Adelaide

Population: 5,800

Host of the 2014 Rural Summit

Agricultural and Multicultural capital of the Wimmera

Home of Luv A Duck, Australia's largest producer of duck meat and products

120 Karen Refugees live, work and prosper in Nhill

Nhill supplies 30% of South Eastern Australia's Silos and Field Bins

Unique Natural Assets

2014 Rural Summit

SMALL COMMUNITIES

BIG OPPORTUNITIES

Facing the future and embracing change

Presentations on

- Corporate agriculture
- Labour shortages
- Multiculturalism in small communities
- Tourism
- Youth
- Economic development
- Community development
- Innovative leadership

Keynote Speakers

David A Wilson
Founder and director of Heritage Futures International (NZ) Ltd

Specialist in utilising heritage assets for job creation, rural town revitalisation, small business expansion and retention, tourism and regional economic development

Keynote Speaker

To be announced early November

WATCH THIS SPACE!

2014 Ticket Prices

Ticket Type	Includes	Price
Early Bird Registration (tickets purchased before 24 December 2013)	2 day Summit Wednesday and Thursday Dinner Functions	$195
Full Registration (tickets purchased after 24 December 2013)	2 day Summit Wednesday and Thursday Dinner Functions	$225
Additional Guests	Thursday Dinner only	$65
Friday night entertainment	Guided Nocturnal walk at Little Desert Nature Lodge	$30

New Ticket Option: Group Discount

First three (3) tickets purchased at prices above, any additional ticket for $95!

(tickets must be purchased in the one transaction)

Book your tickets now!

www.trybooking.com/DTVE

For more information contact
Hindmarsh Shire Council
(03) 5391 4444
ruralsummit@hindmarsh.vic.gov.au

